Dear Dr Bhabani Shankar,

My name is Paula Casto, and I work in the Books and Journals Acquisition group at CAS. Thank you for contacting us regarding the inclusion of the Journal of Pharmaceutical Advanced Research (ISSN: 2581-6160) in the CAS databases.

CAS (Chemical Abstracts Service), a not-for-profit division of The American Chemical Society, provides a valuable indexing service to researchers worldwide. We provide pointers to the original literature via our databases and products. We review and intellectually index thousands of major scientific journals and patents from 63 patent authorities, providing pointers to the new and novel science disclosed in them.
